D.B. SPECIAL APPEAL (W) No.715/2007

Rajasthan Rajya Adhikrit Ration Vikreta Niyojak Sangh
Vs.
The State of Rajasthan & Ors.

Date of Order :: 29-05-2007

HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE SHRI S.N.JHA
HON'BLE SHRI JUSTICE MOHAMMAD RAFIQ

Shri Dharamveer Tholia for the appellant.

****

Challenging the notices inviting applications for appointment of dealers in fair price shops under the public distribution system the appellant-Association filed the writ petition. The petition having been dismissed by the learned Single Judge, it has now come to the Division Bench in appeal.

It appears that earlier fair price shops were allotted per 3000 units. Now the government has decided to allot shops per 2000 units for a better and more effective public distribution system. This is a policy -cum- administrative decision with which this Court would not like to interfere.

We find no error in the order of the learned Single Judge dismissing the writ petition. The appeal is dismissed.
